

Focus On Your Planning, Preparation & Profit

Reports of clogged courts are nothing new, but in addition to the vast numbers, an increasing amount of cases involve complex financial and economic issues. Preparing for trial may require compiling and analyzing reams of accounting, financial, statistical and economic information. In addition, the information must be presented in an easily comprehensible manner for both the judge and jury to understand, particularly when trial strategy centers on proving or disproving financial charges. All this can be daunting for the professional skilled in the nuances of the law, but not for the financial experts at Hertzbach & Company, P.A.

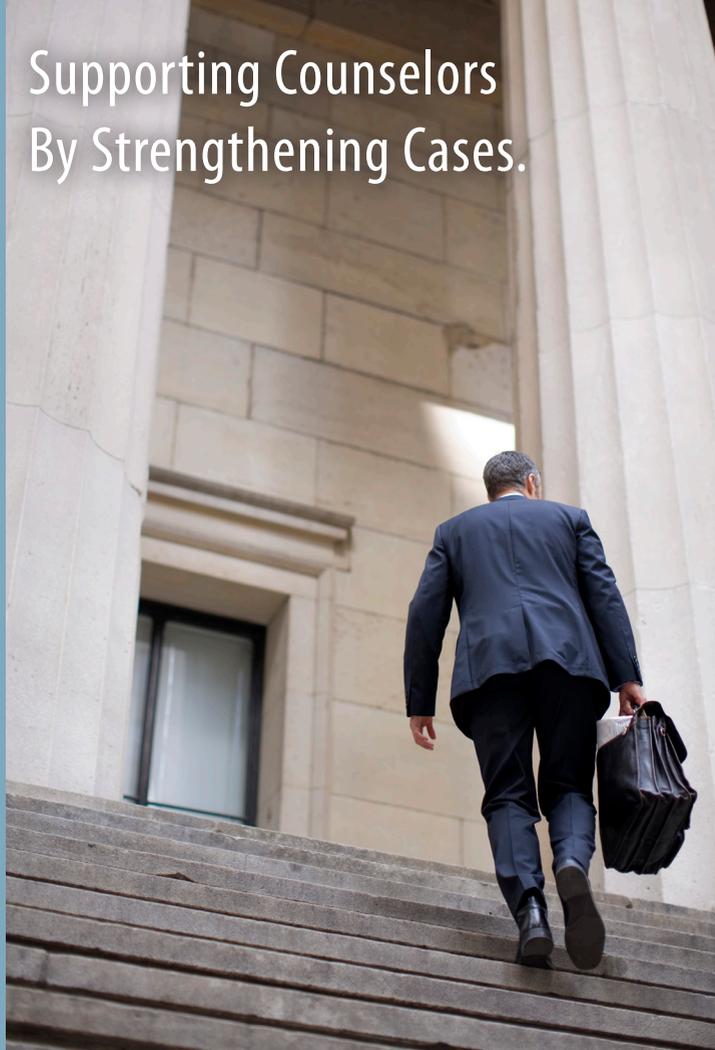

Hertzbach & Company, P.A. offers experienced, capable professionals to meet your needs. To strengthen the financial foundation of your case, contact our Litigation Consulting Group today.

HERTZBACH
certified public accountants · consultants

As Certified Public Accountants with litigation consulting experience, we substantially strengthen the accounting and financial aspects of your clients' cases. Our services may be required for a myriad of purposes, such as forensic investigations, bankruptcy, business valuations, damage calculations, shareholder disputes, insurance claims, lost profits analysis, marital dissolution, tax-related issues, malpractice and more. Let our high standards of professionalism, combined with our extensive experience and personal service, provide you with expert witness and consulting services you can count on...in and out of the courtroom.

Business & Asset Valuations

As Certified Valuation Analysts (CVAs), we provide objective advice when determining the proper value of a business. Our valuations are performed in accordance with USPAP, AICPA, NACVA, IRS, and/or other industry standards.

Marital Dissolutions

We can provide income and expense analyses, value asset and liability inventories, valuations and tax strategies to help your clients agree on an acceptable settlement.

Business Claims

Competent evaluation of lost sales, production costs, profits and losses, cash flows, opportunity costs, rate of return and range of damages are crucial to your cases involving business claims.

Expert Witness Testimony

As CPAs with training in valuation and forensics, we have a unique blend of skills that allow us to provide expert witness testimony in all areas related to financial matters as well as compliance standards and financial reporting.

Forensic Accounting

As Certified Fraud Examiners (CFEs), we have conducted forensic accounting and fraud investigations for organizations of many sizes and have assisted our clients in uncovering millions of dollars in fraudulent losses. We have experience developing claims for insurance reimbursement purposes as well as preparing reports for criminal proceedings.

Unique Needs Require Customized Services

In numerous cases, we've worked hand-in-hand with attorneys to:

- Identify the relevant financial issues, help chart an effective strategy and ensure that the damage theory is compatible with acceptable standards
- Transform confusing and complex financial data into a coherent easy to follow analysis
- Develop a sound and defensible determination of damages
- Persuasively present conclusions to opposing counsel and the trier-of-fact
- Provide expert opinions for:
 - Arbitration & Mediation
 - Marital Dissolution
 - Business & Asset Valuations
 - Economic Damages
 - Lost Profits & Earnings
 - Forensic Accounting
 - Fraud & Embezzlement
